Introduction

The NYC ARTS Cultural Guide for Seniors: Brooklyn was developed in cooperation with the City of New York, which has declared its commitment to make the city friendlier to senior citizens through its program Age-Friendly NYC: Enhancing Our City's Livability for Older New Yorkers. This guide has information about 43 cultural organizations in Brooklyn and the special senior programs or discounts for seniors they offer. It is one part of a citywide guide that includes Bronx, Manhattan, Queens and Staten Island editions.

The NYC ARTS Cultural Guide for Seniors is a natural extension of the Alliance for the Arts' online cultural guide and calendar, NYC-ARTS.org, which was built with support from the City of New York. Profiles of more than 950 arts organizations across the city and details of their thousands of cultural events can be found every day on NYC-ARTS.org.

How to Use This Guide

This guide can be read as a printed document or on a computer as a PDF, using the free software program Adobe Reader. If you read this guide on a computer and have an Internet connection, you can click on the cultural group's name or Web site address to reach the group's expanded description on NYC-ARTS.org or its Web site, respectively.

Cultural groups in this guide appear in alphabetical order. Each listing begins with basic information such as address, telephone number, Web site address, admission costs and open hours. Some organizations hold their activities at venues other than their given address, which is provided for mailing purposes only. A description of the organization follows. If the organization offers programs specific to senior citizens or senior groups, those are highlighted under the heading Programs for Seniors. The age at which a visitor is considered a senior varies by organization and, if specified, is indicated in the guide.

Each listing ends with information about nearby subway stations and other details—ranging from disability access at the venue to information on discounts offered to seniors for admission, tickets, tours or memberships.

At the back of this guide is a two-part index that highlights the cultural organizations in this guide that are free to every visitor, and those that have programming specific to seniors. Some organizations will appear on both lists; some organizations in the guide are not on either index, but can be found in the table of contents at the front of the guide.

The information in this guide was up to date on April 5, 2011; however, changes are inevitable. Hours of operation, admission fees and programs may all change. Users of this guide are encouraged to contact the organization in advance to confirm particulars.

Tel: (212) 255-6651
www.airgallery.org

Free Admission (all visitors, all hours)

Wed–Sun 11 am–6 pm

Artists in Residence’s mission is to advance the status of women artists by exhibiting diverse work of the highest quality and by providing a sense of community to women artists. The A.I.R. Gallery, founded in 1972, was the first cooperative for women artists.

Artichoke Dance

Artichoke Dance Company creates unique dance works, presents public performances and offers participatory educational experiences in dance and dance making that aim to develop physical, creative and social skills as well as artistic and cultural understanding.

Programs for Seniors: The Senior Arts in Action is a multi-arts program that uses movement, music and writing to stimulate mind, body and spirit. The program engages all participants in doing and creating, whether the participant is completely physically functional or wheelchair-bound. Artists and physical therapists address the specific needs of seniors at each location. The program is appropriate for senior centers, nursing homes, community centers and retirement living communities. Programs lasting eight weeks or longer often culminate in a performance of works created along with dances by Artichoke Dance Company. Contact info@artichokedance.org for more information.

Arts in Bushwick

This wood-shingled Dutch Colonial farmhouse, built about 1652, is probably the oldest home in New York City. It stands on land that is believed to have been purchased in 1636 from the Canarsie Indians by Van Twiller, the first director general of New Netherland. With Dutch ceramic tiles and a period garden, visitors can tour the household of the Dutch settlers in the New World.

Directions: Subway: D or N to 18th Avenue Station. Take the B8 bus northbound toward Rockaway Avenue. Exit at Beverly Road and East 58th Street. Turn right on East 58th Street, walk one block south, cross street and turn left and walk one block east on Clarendon Road to museum gate. See museum Web site for more transportation directions from other subway stations.
